"Jill has been so very important to the Kids At Risk efforts that I and others are doing. I love her heart and she is such a hard worker. I love how Life Masteries Institute will help individuals like Jill start their own companies and these companies will change the world."

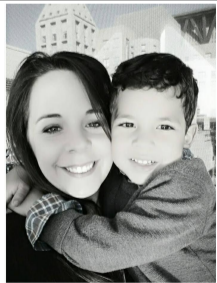

~ Alan Stein, President / Owner

Jill now is running her own successful E-VA (Executive Virtual Assistant) company. She has purchased a car, rents a home, home schools her son, and has been so successful in helping her clients achieve success that she only has to work 15 to 20 hours a week . . . which gives her plenty of time now to invest the time in homeschooling her 6-year-old son.
